OVERVIEW

Elections are pivotal to nation building, symbolising the power of the people to choose their leaders and shape their collective future. The police, as guardians of law and order, play a fundamental role in maintaining a peaceful electoral environment. Police machinery plays a crucial role in conducting elections in a transparent, free and fair environment and ensuring a democratic electoral process without fear or favour. The Commission in the past has provided for various instructions and manuals pertaining to police functioning. However, with the increasing role of police in the present context of elections, there is a need to compile their roles and responsibilities in the form of a handbook which shall act as a guide for the entire police hierarchy in performing their duties pertaining to electoral activities.

The handbook embodies a vast array of topics that are required to be planned and executed by the police. They include planning of district security plan, preventive measures, understanding the concepts of vulnerability mapping and critical polling stations, MCC, expenditure monitoring, roll of CAPFs, VIP security, special plan for LWE/Militancy affected areas, social media management, poll day management etc. The handbook enlists activities that are to be carried out to ensure a peaceful environment that is required for elections.

A comprehensive chapter on training and welfare measures for police officials has been incorporated to ensure that the entire machinery is sensitised and aware about the activities and concepts involved in the election process. A checklist for officers, FAQ s and legal provisions have also been included for ready reference.

It is expected that this handbook will serve as a practical guide to the police functionaries involved in election process for streamlining their activities and equipping them with tools and strategies to address any issue that arises in the process of conducting elections in their jurisdiction.

Following measures are required for developing a full proof transportation plan.

5.1. Creation of District Transportation Cell

Apart from the dedicated transportation cell under DEO, a separate district transportation cell headed at least by a DySP rank officer needs to be constituted by the SP consisting of Reserve Sergeant Major (transport) and sufficient staff to coordinate and control the issues related to the transportation of the forces and their logistics.

Duties of District Transport Cell:

5.1.1. Coordinate and communicate with different stakeholders like DTOs, RTOs, Railways & Airport authorities, incoming CAPF and external forces to assess the need of different types of vehicles.

5.1.2. Assess the deficit or surplus of different types of vehicles depending upon the availability in the district. In case of a deficit of vehicles, coordination with the district transport cell under DEO has to be done.

5.1.3. Calculate the budgetary need for fuel, maintenance of vehicles and daily allowances of drivers and cleaners of private vehicles engaged for election related duties.

5.1.4. Issues related to maintenance of vehicles, management related to drivers, support staffs and timely disbursement of dues.

5.1.5. Communicate with all nodal officers for assessing the need for special tasks like VIP security, special area requirements and evacuation plans.

5.1.6. Briefing of drivers, support staffs and nodal officers and circulation of important contact numbers to all concerned.
5.2. Assessment of logistics (number & type of vehicles needed)

For assessment of number & types of vehicles needed, following points should be taken into account:

5.2.1. No. of polling stations and polling station locations.

5.2.2. Polling booths/ sector/ zonal/ sub zonal and other poll related parties

5.2.3. Terrain and routes

5.2.4. External forces (CAPF) available and internal forces mobilized.

5.2.5. VIP duties to be carried out

5.2.6. Availability of vehicles (quality and quantity of vehicles)

5.2.7. No. of driver, cleaners and supporting staffs available (departmental as well as private)

5.2.8. Number of phases of election and inter phase deployment/movement.

Number & type of vehicles for CAPF/Other external forces

In general, the transportation of CAPF from outside the state is to be coordinated by CAPF with the Railways Ministry and the State Government concerned. Transportation of CAPF, interstate and intrastate, for deployment in the state is the state government’s responsibility. Similarly, transportation of state police personnel and SAP for deployment within state, transportation for monitoring MCC, EEM, political campaigns/rallies, and transportation for ensuring general law and order, has to be taken care of by the state government. Regarding the deployment of CAPF Coys in the State, State administration must plan the availability of following:

Transportation for 1 Coy in a Battalion

Prior meeting of different stakeholders
Before elections, convening meetings involving different stakeholders like DTOs, RTOs, transport officials, lorry/bus association representatives, representatives of fuel supply agencies and travel agency representatives is essential.

5.3. Planning for special areas (LWE/extremists affected/ inaccessible and tough terrains)

In remote, challenging, LWE/extremism infested & hilly terrain, operational hurdles exist for force deployment. Maintaining vehicles in good condition is essential. Additionally, vulnerable areas demand anti-landmine and special vehicles for area-specific challenges. Factors like secure transport for Security forces, Polling Parties, sensitive materials, medical emergencies and accessibility considerations should guide the allocation of vehicles.

Assessing the need of area specific vehicles for LWE/extremism infested areas & tough, hilly terrains during elections is crucial. Such vehicles are:

5.3.1. LMPVs/MMPVs and Bullet proof vehicles: LMPVs/MMPVs and bullet proof vehicles are essential in naxal prone/extremist affected areas. The requirement of LMPV/MMPV and BP vehicles has to be assessed in advance. External forces specially CAPFs should be encouraged to report with LMPV/MMPV and BP vehicles if available with them.

5.3.2. JCB- JCBs play a vital role in addressing unforeseen situations during elections. They clear road debris, create ramps for accessibility and tackle challenges caused by weather or infrastructure issues, thus ensuring smooth material and personnel transportation.

5.3.3. Ambulance (Normal/Special/Bike)-Ambulances symbolize readiness. Equipped with life-saving gear, they offer swift medical aid during emergencies at polling sites or rallies, enhancing safety for voters, officials, and participants, and embodying a commitment to well-being. Bike ambulances are best suited for medical contingency and evacuation in far-flung and tough terrains.
5.3.4. Towing Vehicles- Tow trucks are crucial for smooth & continuous flow of traffic. They quickly address breakdowns of vehicles transporting materials, officials or voters thus, preventing disruptions. By removing obstacles, they maintain schedules and prevent delays, vital for uninterrupted momentum.

5.3.5. Tractors & bikes: Tractors and bikes are also very useful during the elections in remote and tough terrain areas.

Need and availability of special vehicles has to be minutely assessed and the operators for special vehicles have to be earmarked accordingly.

5.4. Helicopter planning for inaccessible and LWE/extremism affected areas and for emergency evacuation

5.4.1. Helicopter requirement assessment:

Determine the need for specific make and type of helicopters well in advance, considering actual field requirements and the availability of secure helipads. Submit the proposal to the CEO’s office in advance.

5.4.2. Trial landings and helipad modifications:

If necessary, conduct trial landings at least 15 days prior to the polling day. This allows sufficient time for any required modifications to the helipads to be completed.

5.4.3. Efficient resources allocation:

Requisitions for sorties to transport EVMs and troops must reach the State Police Nodal Officer’s office at least 10 days before the polling day. This timeframe facilitates effective planning and allocation of necessary resources.

5.4.4. Adherence to Standard Operating Procedure (SOP):

DEOs and SPs are responsible for ensuring strict adherence to the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP). This ensures consistent and proper execution of procedures as already provided to their respective offices.

5.5. Preparation of route map

5.5.1 Detailed route map (both written/ descriptive as well as pictorial) needs to be prepared for all the incoming forces as an integral part of the transportation plan. It should cover all details right from the first point of disembarkation/ deboarding from the railway station/ airports etc. to the district where the forces are deployed. Within the district of deployment, it should cover all details regarding routes to their places of stay, to the dispatch centres, clusters, booths & to the strong room.

5.5.2 It should cover details regarding distances between various places, nature and quality of roads (e.g. metalled, kutchcha, village roads etc), bridges, culverts, diversions, blind/black spots, accident prone areas, traffic congestion prone areas, bottlenecks etc. It should also contain details regarding available petrol pumps, hospitals, police stations, pickets/ outposts/ camps, government buildings enroute.

5.5.3 In extremist/ LWE affected areas it should include details on ambush prone sites, IED prone areas & details on any previous incident etc.

5.5.4 It should also contain important contact numbers of police stations, hospitals, emergency contact numbers which might be helpful for forces in case of emergency.

5.6. Execution of transportation plan

5.6.1. Provision of appropriate transport by state authorities

State authorities are responsible for ensuring that troops are provided with roadworthy transportation that meets laid-out guidelines upon their arrival at deboarding stations and for their subsequent deployment.

5.6.2. Fuel-efficient vehicles ready at railway stations

Vehicles for transportation should be ready at railway stations with full fuel tanks and made available to the companies (Coys).

5.6.3. Arrangement of spare vehicles for contingencies

Arrange spare vehicles along the route to address any unforeseen situations that may arise.

5.6.4. Identification and creation of vehicle pool and fuel distribution centres

Identify or create a pool of vehicles in good mechanical condition and establish multiple fuel distribution centres for efficient operations. In such a situation where scarcity of vehicles arises, maintain a vehicle pool.

5.6.5 Setting up re-fuelling stations in districts with high deployment

States should designate or establish several re-fuelling stations in districts where a significant number of companies (Coys) are deployed.
5.6.6. Essential support personnel and equipment

Equip each company (Coy) with a spare driver, an automotive mechanic, and frequently used spare parts. The transportation of forces is done extensively between two phases.

Inter-phase transportation of troops is done extensively between two phases. This transportation and the movement of the forces need to be pre-planned taking into account the distance between different places of two different phases. All the vehicles must be pre-fuelled and all the logistics has to be pre-ready with a local liaisoning officer where the forces are being relocated for next phases. This support setup can prove invaluable in Inter phases transportation of troops and others.

5.6.7. Briefing of drivers, support staffs and nodal officers

The drivers, support staff, liaison officers, nodal officers must be briefed prior to embarking.

5.6.8. Use of signage and modern techniques should be encouraged

Use of modern navigation techniques like digital maps, creation of social media groups for communication amongst stakeholders including drivers use of placards and posters showing destination and vehicle no. should be encouraged.

COMMUNICATION PLAN

5.7. Background:

Multiplicity of activities at national, state, district and polling station level is an important feature of general elections in India. A robust and thoroughly tested communication plan is of immense help for the success of the electoral process. It should be prepared well in advance. Tracking and monitoring of multifarious activities involved in conduct of elections is an important task for all election offices. This is primarily achieved by establishing reliable and secure communication linkages between various stakeholders. The importance of strategic communication planning in elections cannot be undermined. It is at the heart of successful election planning and management.

5.8. Appointment of State Level Nodal Officer for Communication:

Every state has a position in the police forces called ADG / IG Communications who is responsible for procuring and managing the communication system in State police. This officer may preferably be appointed as the Nodal Officer.
for Communication in each state and should be responsible for assessing requirements and providing communication systems at each PS and also for coordinating with neighbouring states and the centre for procurement, etc. This officer should be appointed as Nodal at least 6-8 months prior to the due date of elections, so that he has enough time for issuing purchase orders wherever necessary.

Levels of Communication:

The following levels of communication are to be established and made operational, during elections:

5.8.1. National level - ECI, MHA, MOD, Mobile operators etc.,

CHAPTER-7

ROLE OF POLICE IN EXPENDITURE MONITORING DURING ELECTIONS

It has been the endeavour of the ECI that the level playing field for all stakeholders, including candidates and political parties is not disturbed and the electoral process is not allowed to be vitiated by any means including misuse of money power. While curbing the menace of money and muscle power, ECI ensures that the general public does not face any inconvenience. The manual on Expenditure Monitoring includes, inter alia, role of police in expenditure monitoring. However, the chapter provides for a gist of important instruction to be taken into consideration by the police force:

7.1. OBJECTIVE OF ELECTION EXPENDITURE MONITORING

Election expenditure can broadly be divided into two categories.

(i). The first category of election expenditure is the legal expenditure, which is allowed under the law for electioneering, subject to it being within the permissible limit. This would include expenditure connected with campaigning, which is spent on public meetings, public rallies posters, banners, vehicles, advertisements in print or electronic media etc.

(ii). The second category of the election expenditure is on items which are not permitted under the law, e.g., distribution of money, liquor, or any other item disbursed and given to the electors with the intent to influence them. This expenditure comes under the definition of “bribery” which is an offence both under IPC and under R.P. Act, 1951. The expenditure on such items is illegal.

(iii). Yet another form of expenditure which has come to the fore in recent times is on Surrogate Advertisements, Paid News and Social Media etc. The purpose of election expenditure monitoring is, therefore, threefold.

(iv). For the first category of expenditure, it must be ensured that all election expenditure on permitted items is truthfully reported and considered while scrutinising the expenditure account submitted by the candidates. As far as the second and third category of expenditure including surrogate advertisements, paid news etc., is concerned, it is obvious that it will never be reported by the political parties/candidates. Expenditure on campaigning through social media tends to be underreported, if at all, especially by candidates. The systems should be robust enough to catch such expenditure as well, and not only include it in the account of election expenditure, but also take action against the wrongdoers under the relevant provisions of the law, including lodging of complaints before the police/ competent magistrate, if required.

7.2. Legal Provisions

(i). Indian Penal Code 1860 - Sections of IPC which includes Section 171B (Bribery), Section 171 E (Punishment for bribery), Section 171F (Punishment for undue influence or personation at an election), Section 171H (Illegal payments, in connection with an election), Section 171I (Failure to keep election accounts), are the relevant sections which needs attention for participating Police officials in the electoral process. These Sections in detail is also part of Compendium of Instruction on Election Expenditure Monitoring, available on the website of Election Commission.

(ii). The Representation of the People Act, 1951 - Important Sections of RP Act, 1951, are given below: Section 77 (Account of election expenses and maximum thereof), Section 78 (Lodging of account with the District Election Officer), Section 10A (Disqualification for failure to lodge account of election expenses), Section 123 (Corrupt practices), Section 127A (Restrictions on the printing of pamphlets, posters etc.). It is expected that the above given sections of RP Act, 1951 be given a thoughtful reading as part of preparation for monitoring of election expenditure.

(iii). The Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 - Rule 90 (Maximum election expenses incurred by contesting candidate) - The total of the expenditure of which account is to be kept under Section 77 of the R. P. Act, 1951 and which is incurred or authorized in connection with an election in a State or Union Territory mentioned on column 1 of the Table below shall not exceed-a). in any one parliamentary constituency of that State or Union Territory, the amount specified in the corresponding column 2 of the said Table mentioned in the rule 90 ; and b). in any one assembly constituency, if any, of that State or Union Territory, the amount specified in the corresponding column 3 of the said Table mentioned in rule 90.

As per notification of M/o Law and Justice, Legislative Department’s Notification S. O. 72(E) dated 6th January, 2022, amending Rule 90 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, for anyone Parliamentary Constituency, there are two limits for two sets of States/UTs- Rs. 95 Lakhs and Rs. 75 Lakhs.
For anyone Assembly Constituency, there are two limits for two sets of States/UTs-Rs.40 Lakhs and Rs. 28 Lakhs. It is suggested to peruse Rule 90 of Conduct of Election Rules, 1961 and the cited notification of M/o Law & Justice.

Composite daily activity report should be furnished in Annexure-B8, B9 and B10 and final report should be furnished in Annexure-C4 by 1 PM on the day of poll. (May refer to the manual on Expenditure Monitoring)

(iii). On request of the Commission other Enforcement Agencies viz. CBIC, ED, DRI, CGST, FIU-IND, RBI, SLBC, Department of Post, RPF, Indian Coast Guard, Paramilitary Forces viz. CISF, BSF, SSB, ITBP, Assam Rifles, State Departments viz. State Commercial Tax, State GST, State Forest Department etc. also appoint Nodal Officers for Election Expenditure Monitoring during elections for coordination, sharing intelligence and reporting interception/seizure of cash, liquor, drugs/narcotics, precious metals, freebies etc.

7.5. Recently, the Commission has issued instruction and Standard Operating Procedure for identification of Expenditure Sensitive Constituency (ESCs) and Expenditure Sensitive Pockets (ESPs). The State Police Department has a major role in such identification. Main features are given below:

(i). The Chief Electoral Officer of the State/UT is required to identify a Constituency as Expenditure Sensitive Constituency (ESC) which is prone to high expenditure and corrupt practices, on the basis of history, profile of the constituency and past developments after having discussion with District Election Officers, State Police Department, and enforcement agencies which participate in expenditure monitoring process.

(ii). The Chief Electoral Officer of the State/UT will organise the meeting with the State Level Nodal Officers of various enforcement agencies at least 6 months before the month of expiry of the Legislative Assembly of the State/UT and/or Lok Sabha, to identify mapping of sensitivities on two main grounds.

a). Functionalities like main cohorts of cash, liquor, drugs, precious metals and freebies.

b). Area wise sensitivities (District wise, group of district wise, AC wise)

(iii). There is a checklist given below which are indicative empirical parameters. This list is only indicative and may be supplemented with specific other expenditure sensitivities as deliberated by the CEO Office in consultation with Nodal Officers of enforcement agencies as mentioned in point 1. The indicative list of empirical parameters of identifying ESC is given below:

a). High amount of cash, liquor, drugs/narcotics, precious metals/jewellery, freebies etc. during the last two Assembly/Lok Sabha elections.
b). High amount of seizure of cash, liquor, drugs/narcotics, precious metals/jewellery, freebies, etc. in the preceding six months of announcement of election.

c). Constituencies sharing State border and/or International border with neighboring State/UT and/or Country be identified as ESC based on history of seizure or other incidents during past elections.

d). Constituency having a significant number of Expenditure Sensitive Pockets (ESPs).

e). Information about treasury chests which show a 20% or more increase in demand for currency in the six months leading up to announcement of elections can be obtained from RBI for identification of ESCs.

f). Unusually high number of online/digital transitions from a few to many accounts, mostly of small denominations, starting witnessed by banks 6 months before probable date of poll.

(iv). After the broad sensitivities are compiled by CEO Office in consultation with State Nodal Officers of enforcement agencies, the district wise findings will be communicated to DEOs which in turn will discuss and seek further inputs by forming a District Intelligence Committee composed of district level officers of enforcement agencies. In case of few Central Agencies where the strength in State is very few, the District Intelligence Committee may seek inputs directly from State Level Nodal Officers in place of district level officers of respective enforcement agencies.

(v). The District Intelligence Committee as mentioned above will give its inputs back to the CEO office within stipulated time which is = (Poll month of corresponding previous elections minus 5 months). The CEO Office will compile detailed lists with observations and comments and will inform the Commission within the timeline of Poll month of corresponding previous election minus 4 months (Poll month minus 4 months). This list shall be marked as confidential and will contain ESCs, Assembly Constituency wise, including nature of sensitivity and preparedness (what to do?) and strategies to overcome the challenge (how to do?).

(vi). Sticking to timelines is important as the list and observations received from CEOs four months in advance from the month of expiry of the Legislative Assembly of the State/UT and/or Lok Sabha is required to be perused for making adequate arrangements for quality monitoring.

(vii). For an ESC, there may be up to two Assistant Expenditure Observers, such additional number of Flying Squads, Static Surveillance Teams and Video Surveillance Teams as required, over and above, those deployed in the remaining constituencies.

(viii). The list of ESCs is to be furnished in the format prescribed as under:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sl. No.</th>
<th>Name of Expenditure Sensitive Constituency (ESC)</th>
<th>Name of District</th>
<th>ESC as per empirical criteria</th>
<th>Criteria mentioned by which agency/ agencies</th>
<th>Detailed note on nature of sensitivity of ESC</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

7.5.1 Standard Operating Procedure for identification of Expenditure Sensitive Pockets (ESPs):

(i). The District Election Officer (DEO), Superintendent of Police (SP) in consultation with the Expenditure Observer (EO), deployed in the constituency shall identify the Expenditure Sensitive Pockets (ESPs) in the constituency during the first visit of the EO.

(ii). Pockets having following characteristics may be identified as ESPs:

   a). Inputs of District Intelligence Committee be considered for identification of ESPs.

   b). Pockets having a large number of complaints/incidents of distribution of cash, liquor, freebies etc. in the last elections.

   c). Other empirical criteria as mentioned in the list of marking of ESCs should also be perused.

   d). ESPs are to be kept under 24 x 7 surveillance by Flying Squads (FSs) and Static Surveillance Teams (SSTs) particularly during last three days of poll. There shall be a mix of Central Paramilitary Force in the SSTs during this period.

A reading of Compendium of Instructions on Election Expenditure Monitoring is available on website of Commission imbibing details of monitoring wherein the Police Department has a major role to play. Link is as follows: https://eci.gov.in/files/file/14497-compendium-of-instructions-on-election-expenditure-monitoring-August-2023/

In the above given compendium which gets revised annually, important instructions related to FS, SST and meant for perusal of Police is given in Chapter of SOPs.

7.6 Following points are also important to keep in mind for preparing effectively on taking effective action on flow of inducements:

(i). Ensure adequate strength of FS and SSTs to be factored while requisitioning the police manpower.

(iii). Ensure timely border coordination meetings at district, sub-division and police station level with the counterparts in bordering states.

(iv). Route maps of flow of liquor and drugs and inducements.

(v). Cross functional training with agencies like Income Tax, GST and other agencies.

(vi). Trail of flow and routes of inducements to be included in FIRs pertaining to inducements.

(vii). Quick flow of information of interceptions to Income Tax Department and relevant agencies. Communicating with the Income Tax department when cash of 10 lakhs or more is intercepted by Flying Squads/ Static Surveillance teams without criminality attached to it, during enforcement of MCC.

(viii). Mapping of expenditure vulnerability done at all levels starting from polling station wise, expenditure sensitive pocket wise, assembly constituency wise, district wise needs to be closely monitored. List of persons who may influence voters through various modes of inducement be made well in advance to keep them in tight vigil.

(ix). Special focus be kept in monitoring crucial places, keep them under surveillance like Railway Stations, Trucks, Buses, Ambulance, etc.

(x). From the analysis of districts where significant seizure of cash was made in previous two elections, there should be special vigil of districts which exhibit high seizures.

(xi). Surprise element of SSTs to be ensured while overseeing functioning of Static Surveillance Teams.
(xii). Progress of electoral offenses in previous elections to be monitored promptly.

(xiii). List of absconding and warranted persons with reference to liquor cases to be prepared and details to be shared with bordering states.

(xiv). Along with the State Excise Department, ensure that main and traditional routes of inflow of liquor, drugs should be marked and properly guarded. Entry Nakas also should be strongly guarded.

(xv). Directs focus on arrest of kingpins, stockists and distributors of liquor and drugs for effective deterrence.

(xvi). Pre-embarkation checks at Commercial Airports/helipads/Non-commercial Airports: during the election process, all rules and procedures with regard to frisking and checking of persons and baggage should be strictly enforced as per the directions of ECI.

7.7 ELECTION SEIZURE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (ESMS):

(i). To curb the menace of money power in elections, the Commission requisitions services of various Enforcement Agencies viz. Central Board of Direct Taxes, Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, State Police Department, State Excise Department, Enforcement Department, Directorate of Revenue Intelligence, Financial Intelligence Unit-India, Narcotics Control Bureau, Department of Posts, Railway Protection Force, paramilitary forces like Border Security Force, Central Industrial Security Force, Indo Tibetan Border Police, Sashastra Seema Bal, Assam Rifles, Indian Coast Guard etc.

(ii). As per existing practice, the Chief Electoral Officer manually compiles the seizure reports received from these Enforcement Agencies and send day to day compiled seizure report to the Commission by e-mail/post.

(iii). The procedure of compilation of seizure reports manually by the Chief Electoral Office is cumbersome, and not on real time base as it is a complex process where lot of time in reporting and compiling is involved. Therefore, a software with real time reporting called as ‘Election Seizure Management System’ has been developed by ECI and used for the first time in the GELA of Mizoram, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Telangana-2023.

(iv). The software will ensure reflection of real time seizure efforts from the field, remove redundancy and duplicacy, coordination among enforcement agencies and record keeping etc.
Field level functionaries from the Police Department are given login ids to fill data as per the action taken from the time of announcement of elections till completion of poll so as to digitise the seizure related activities and for proper monitoring.

7.8 AVOIDANCE OF HIGH-HANDEDNESS BY POLICE AUTHORITIES:

(i). Police authorities shall show maximum restraint while conducting checks and seizures. They shall avoid harassment of the public under the pretext of mandatory poll related checks.

(ii). Frisking, checking and seizure activity shall be affected strictly as per the procedure laid down under relevant laws and directions of the Commission.

(iii). Any grievance arising out of such activity shall be referred to the District Grievance Committee for redressal immediately.

(iv). The enforcement agency personnel shall carry their IDs and be in uniform (if applicable) while carrying out election related searches and seizures.

(v). Searches and Seizure activities shall be videographed to avoid any allegations.

11.3.6 Police and security arrangements should be made during this period to ensure maintenance of proper law and order, check movement of dangerous criminals and to check illegal supply of drugs, liquor, arms, ammunition, etc. For this, the security at the International border should be strengthened.

11.4. International border (Second Line of Defence)

11.4.1 Comprehensive review of security at border & second line of defence of border should be carried out by abovementioned committees and officials of local District Administration.

11.4.2 Joint control room (State police and Central agencies) should be established, which shall be manned by the officials belonging to above mentioned agencies (both State and Central). This control room should be established on the day the election is declared by the Election Commission of India. There may be more than one such control room depending upon the length of the International border.
11.4.3 Round the clock manning of the Control Room by Inspector rank police officer should be ensured so that any information relating to cross border movement may be shared with various stakeholders on a real time basis.

11.4.4 All important & strategic points on roads leading to the international border should be identified and such points will form part of the second line of defence security setup.

11.4.5 Effective joint ‘nakas’ comprising members of Central Armed Police Force concerned and district police should be deployed. Sufficient number of police personnel should be deployed at these second line of defence ‘nakas’ and special vehicles especially bullet resistant (BR) vehicles should be deployed at these ‘nakas’. Effective wireless communication for all such ‘nakas’ should also be planned.

11.4.6 Proper accommodation and Food/Refresment arrangements should also be ensured for ‘jawans’ deployed at the second line of defence ‘nakas’.

11.4.7 In addition to ‘nakas’ at the second line of defence, surprise ‘nakas’ should also be deployed during night time in border areas to check movement of undesirable elements in border areas.

11.4.8 CCTV camera surveillance system with centralised command centre at district headquarter should be established. Vulnerable and strategic points should also be identified and CCTV cameras should be installed at such places. These cameras should be IP based infrared cameras.

11.4.9 Rapid Police Response vehicles and other vehicles should be placed on strategic points near the border during the night time.

11.4.10 Joint patrolling and checking mechanism in the border area with Central Armed Police Force Concerned should be deployed along the international border.

11.4.11 Regular coordination meetings between local units of Central Armed Police Force concerned, local Police and other agencies (both State and Centre) should be held on a regular basis to discuss multifarious issues related to security in border areas.

11.4.12 Strict surveillance measures should be deployed at least up to a depth of 1000 metres on Indian side from zero line on the border.

11.4.13 Surprise checkings, ambushes, patrolling, etc. during odd hours especially during night time should be organised.
11.4.14 The Senior Superintendents / Superintendents of Police of border districts should identify vulnerable areas in their respective jurisdiction from where drones / UAVs can be launched and these places should be covered with police patrolling.

11.4.15 Regular meetings with local people should be held to make them aware about various issues relating to security threats in border areas including operations of drones / UAVs.

11.4.16 People of border areas should also be sensitised about this issue and hence community outreach programmes should be devised and implemented by district Police.

11.4.17 Surprise and intensive checking of vehicles in border areas, both during day and night time, should be carried out.

11.4.18 Special combing and search operations at suspicious places shall also be carried out.

11.4.19 The Senior Superintendents/ Superintendents of Police of border districts should identify big smugglers of drugs and weapons in their areas as they facilitate illegal incursions / excursions on the border. They shall mount effective surveillance on their activities.

11.4.20 Intelligence sharing mechanism with local units of State Intelligence wing and Central Armed Police Force manning the borders should be strengthened to counter any security threat emanating from territory of neighbouring countries.

11.4.21 Response time of police should be immediate without any delay as criminals act very fast and in case of delayed response by the Police they are likely to escape from the scene of crime.

11.4.22 Suspicious movement of people near the border and at least 3 – 4 KMs from the border should be checked especially during night time by the local Police.

11.4.23 The Drone target points/landing areas/drone dropping areas from across the border should be earmarked. This is relevant for border areas of Punjab, Rajasthan and Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir.

11.4.24 Sufficient number of strong ‘nakas’ in each border district should be earmarked for search operation by concerned IGP/SSP in consultation with Central Armed Police Force authorities and other central agencies.

11.4.25 The members of Indian Army and Air Force may be included in such a committee where dropping of weapons and drugs by using drones is being practised.
11.4.26 The senior rank police officers should be nominated to supervise special search/ night domination operations near the second line of defence.

11.5. Inter State Nakas'

11.5.1 The primary objective of these ‘nakas’ is to prevent criminal activities, arrest movement of dangerous criminals like terrorists, gangsters, drug & liquor smugglers including people involved in smuggling of arms, ammunition, explosives, unaccounted cash, etc. from other states to areas of State where elections will be held. By monitoring the flow of traffic between states, law enforcement agencies can effectively address issues related to smuggling of liquor, drugs, explosives, arms, ammunition and other illegal activities that may occur across States.

11.5.2 During election time, some groups may use illegal services of musclemen and other ‘goonda’ elements for election rigging purposes. More often than not, the musclemen from other states are also invited to rig elections or terrorise voters in the states going for election. Inter-state and inter- district ‘nakas’ play an important role in preventing movement of such dangerous and undesirable elements.

11.5.3 However, it is important to note that the establishment and operation of these ‘nakas’ must be conducted within the legal framework and respect individuals’ rights. Law enforcement agencies must adhere to constitutional principles, such as probable cause & reasonable suspicion when conducting searches and seizures at these checkpoints.

11.5.4 These ‘nakas’ play a crucial role in maintaining security and ensuring compliance with State laws. They serve as a visible deterrent to criminal activities and contribute to the overall safety and well-being of the public. Hence, in order to meet these objectives meticulous compliance of following should be made at these ‘nakas’:

(i). Interstate ‘nakas’, also known as interstate checkpoints, should be established by State police of both the States at interstate borders to monitor and regulate the movement of vehicles and individuals between the States.

(ii). These checkpoints should serve various purposes, including ensuring compliance with state laws, preventing the transportation of illegal goods / items and enhancing public safety.
(iii). Checking of vehicles and verification of necessary documents such as driver’s licenses, vehicle registrations, permits, etc. should be thoroughly ensured at these ‘nakas’. Vehicles may also be searched for contraband items, such as drugs, weapons, liquor, etc. and apprehend individuals with outstanding warrants.

(iv). Modern and state of art CCTV surveillance systems should be installed at these ‘nakas’.

(v). These ‘nakas’ should be established from the day on which the model code of conduct is implemented in the State concerned.

(vi). Round the clock inter-state ‘nakas’ should be operational in three shifts.

(vii). One non-gazetted rank police officer or head constable and three (3) constables of State police should be deployed at each inter-state ‘naka’ in each shift.

(viii). States have evolved various mechanisms at State, District, Subdivision and police station level for districts having an inter-state border for coordination among all stakeholders. To formalize such mechanisms, committees may be constituted immediately on the day of announcement of election. The composition of these committees may be as follows:

a). State Level Committee

   • The overall incharge of law and order setup of the States (Additional Director General of Police or Inspector General of Police).

   • Representative of intelligence / CID setup of the State.

   • Range Inspector / Deputy Inspector General of Police of districts having inter-state borders.

   • Representative of the Chief Electoral Officer of the state concerned.

   • Representative of State Police Nodal Officer for elections.

b). Functions of State Level Committee

   • Ensuring seamless coordination between police forces of neighboring states.
• Identification of potential trouble makers, criminals, smugglers, gangsters, etc. who may try to move in territory of election bound State.

• Collect all relevant details about such criminals and sharing of information about such criminals with neighboring States.

• Sharing of list of parole jumpers, bail jumpers, proclaimed offenders / absconders of both the states and sharing of information about such criminals with neighboring States.

• Sharing of relevant and actionable intelligence regarding movement of criminals, smugglers, proclaimed offenders, bail jumpers, etc. on a real time basis.

• Sharing of details of stolen vehicles which may be used during election time.

• Launching coordinated police operations on both sides of interstate borders.

• Laying of ‘nakas’ in tandem and coordinated manner by police force of both the States so that no ingress to the state remains uncovered.

c). District Level Committee

• Commissioner of Police/Senior Superintendent / Superintendent of Police of a district having an inter-state border.

• Deputy Superintendent of Police / Circle Inspector of subdivision having an inter-state border.

• Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Sub-Division having inter-state border.

d). Functions of District Level Committee

• Identification of location of interstate ‘nakas’.

• Establishment of proper picket (temporary or permanent) at these ‘nakas’.

• Installation of IP based infrared CCTV surveillance system with having connection with centralized control room.

• Providing sufficient hardware and other equipment like barricades, dragon lights, torches, chase vehicles, video cameras, computers / laptops along with internet connectivity, etc. at these ‘nakas’.

- Organizing joint flag marches and need based search / combing operations in border areas.
- Providing a sufficient number of sniffer dogs (explosive & narcotics) at these ‘nakas’.
- Selection of proper manpower for these ‘nakas’.
- Checking and supervision of these ‘nakas’ from time to time.

e). Police Station Level Committee and its functions

Police Station Level Committee of Station House Officers of Police Stations having inter-state ‘nakas’ will be constituted to perform following functions:

- Ensuring that all roads, link roads and ‘kutcha’ tracks having inter-state links are covered with deployment of sufficient numbers of force.
- Deployment of police force at these ‘nakas’ in three shifts.
- Ensuring that all equipment provided at these ‘nakas’ are in working condition.
- Ensuring that police personnel deployed at these ‘nakas’ are aware about the nature of their duty.
- Carrying out checking of vehicles, movement of criminals, proclaimed offenders / absconders, parole jumpers, etc.
- Carrying out combing & search operations near the interstate border. It should also be done in a coordinated manner with adjacent police stations of neighbouring state.
- Organization of coordination meetings with Station House Officers of adjacent district of neighbouring State on a regular basis.
- Timely dissemination of information about known movement of criminals to police force of other States especially to station house officers of adjacent police station of neighbouring state.
• Sharing of list of hardened criminals, proclaimed offenders / absconders, parole jumpers, people involved in cases of heinous crime especially during election with Station House Officer of adjacent district of neighbouring State.

• Briefing district and state level committees about activities at interstate border on a regular basis.

11.6. Inter District ‘Nakas’

11.6.1 The primary objective of these ‘nakas’ is to prevent criminal activities, arrest movement of dangerous criminals like terrorists, gangsters, drug & liquor smugglers including people involved in smuggling of arms, ammunition, explosive, unaccounted cash, etc. within districts of State where elections will be held.

11.6.2 Inter-district ‘nakas’ play an important role in preventing movement of dangerous and undesirable elements in the State.

11.6.3 These ‘nakas’ play a crucial role in maintaining security and ensuring compliance with State laws. They serve as a visible deterrent to criminal activities and contribute to the overall safety and well-being of the public.

11.6.4 Inter-district ‘nakas’ should be established by the State concerned at borders of districts to monitor and regulate the movement of vehicles and individuals within the States.

11.6.5 These ‘nakas’ should serve various purposes, including ensuring compliance with state laws, preventing the transportation of illegal goods / items and enhancing public safety.

11.6.6 These ‘nakas’ should be established from the day on which model code conduct is implemented in the State concerned.

11.6.7 Checking of vehicles should be thoroughly ensured at these ‘nakas’. Vehicles should also be searched for contraband items, such as drugs, weapons, liquor, etc. and apprehend individuals with outstanding warrants.

11.6.8 Sufficient number of sniffer dogs, if available should also be deployed at these ‘nakas’.

11.6.9 Modern and state of art CCTV surveillance systems should be installed at these nakas.
11.6.10 These CCTV surveillance should be IP based infrared having connection with the district control room.

11.6.11 These ‘nakas’ should be operational round the clock in three shifts.

11.6.12 One non-gazetted rank police officer or head constable and three (3) constables of police should be deployed at each inter-district ‘naka’ in each shift.

11.6.13 Station house officer of area shall ensure the following:

(i). Station house officers of adjoining districts should coordinate with each other and identify suitable locations for inter-district ‘nakas’.

(ii). Proper picket (temporary or permanent) at these ‘nakas’ should be established.

(iii). Sufficient hardware and other equipment like barricades, dragon lights, torches, chase vehicles, video cameras, computers / laptops along with internet connectivity, etc. should be provided at these ‘nakas’.

(iv). All equipment provided at these ‘nakas’ are in working condition.

(v). Police personnel deployed at these ‘nakas’ are aware about the nature of their duty.

(vi). Organization of coordination meetings with Station House Officers of adjacent districts on a regular basis.

(vii). Timely dissemination of information about known movement of criminals to police forces of other districts, especially to station house officers of adjacent police stations of neighboring districts.
CHAPTER-12

VIP SECURITY DURING ELECTION

VIP security is a very important aspect in any election related planning. During elections, ensuring full proof security to VIPs like candidates, political leaders, star campaigners and other important political functionaries becomes very important. This becomes even more sensitive and important in areas affected by extremists’ activities, LWE/ extremist affected regions & requires a thorough and detailed preparation, planning, monitoring and effective deployment. The aspect of VIP Security shall not be neglected during the course of conduct of elections as the security forces and other agencies are mainly engaged in various other election related activities and preparations. It is very important that VIP security must be taken with full seriousness and handled professionally.

Following measures are suggested for the same: -

12.1 Establishment of VIP Monitoring Cell

A dedicated VIP Security Monitoring Cell needs to be made functional at the state as well as district level to coordinate with different security agencies, intelligence agencies, offices of CEO, DEOs, Superintendents of Police, political parties, control rooms and others to ensure incident free foolproof security of the VIPs.

The VIP monitoring cell at the state level should be headed by a sufficiently high rank officer nominated by the DGP of the state. This cell would be the single point of contact for monitoring of VIP movements. This cell will be responsible for making available the security categorisation of the VIPs, pooling of resources, assessment of security gadgets, coordination with CEO’s office, different security agencies like CAPFs, SPG, NSG, VIP monitoring cells of other states, different intelligence agencies like SB, SIB & IB. The state VIP monitoring cell would be guiding and instructing the district level VIP monitoring cell to make full proof arrangements to ensure security of the VIPs.

In the district, the VIP monitoring cell should be headed by at least a DySP rank officer with sufficient and well-trained manpower & resources. The cell at the state level would be responsible for: -

(i). Ensuring availability of security gadgets, security protocols and security categorisation lists and instructions to all those concerned with the VIP security.

(ii). This cell should evaluate the threat assessment of the VIPs depending upon security categorisation and the intelligence agency inputs.
(iii). Keeping track of the various VIP movements, gatherings, rallies etc. taking place in a day in various places and continuously co-ordinating with the district VIP monitoring cells, and to guide and take stock of the situation.

At the district level, the district monitoring cells would replicate the above tasks in their jurisdiction to have a full proof security plan at the time of VIP movement. The cell at the district level would be responsible for providing all essential security arrangements to the VIP as per the sanctioned norms and would be solely responsible for coordination for all security related aspects.

12.2 Co-ordination meetings amongst different stakeholders:

(i). Coordination meetings of all the stakeholders viz. State police, DEOs, Intelligence agencies (SB/IB, CAPFs/ NSG/ Others/ traffic) etc. are very crucial.

(ii). Coordination meetings with different agencies during political rallies and movements like (PWD, building division, contractors, SFs, medical units, intelligence agencies, traffic, local political organizations, other civil agencies etc.) must be organized.

12.3 Assessment of requirements

(i). Assessment of logistics like security gadgets and instruments (arms, ammunitions, CCTVs, wireless sets, BP vehicles, BP jackets, jammers etc.) and assessing the availability of fencing, road barriers, security equipment - (DFMDs, alarm systems, HHMDs, surveillance cameras, bomb detectors, NLJD, UVSM, X-Ray scanners etc.), sniffer canines, anti-riot equipments etc.

(ii). Threat assessment analysis of the VIPs taking into account his/her security categorisation, intelligence inputs & terrain.

(iii). Assessment of logistics and manpower for access control, traffic management, crowd control during rallies, road shows and public gatherings and addresses prior to VIP visit.

(iv). Assessment of availability of specially trained quick action teams (QATs), PSOs, medical teams, specialized ambulances, blood donors etc.

12.4 Training

VIP security training programmes should be completed prior to declaration of elections.

Training should include: -
(i). Guidelines of Blue Book, Yellow Book, provisions of the Special Protection Group (SPG) Act, Special Security Schemes and any other latest instructions issued by different state agencies and central agencies from time to time.

(ii). Use of different communication devices.

(iii). Quick responses during emergency situations and distress.

(v). Working protocols of different security forces like SPG, NSG, CAPFs etc.

(vi). Use of different security gadgets.

(vii). Designing of routes and alternate routes for VIP movements.

(viii). Threat analysis depending upon intelligence and terrain/area specially in LWE and extremist affected areas.

(ix). Traffic management, crowd control and access control.

(x). Security during roadshows, rallies and public meetings and gatherings.

12.4.11. ECI’s instructions related to MCC on security matters.

12.5. Security categorisation

Threat assessment & security categorisation exercises need to be done well in advance with respect to the possible VIPs likely to be involved in campaigning/rallies during the elections depending upon the intelligence inputs by various agencies (like int. agencies, local police), terrains, extremists/LWE affected regions, previous security threats etc. This categorisation should be shared with all concerned agencies related to VIP security. Security of the VIP has to be provided as per the scale designed. In case of LWE and extremist affected areas there should be flexibility in adherence to security gradation as the need may be more depending on the threat assessment of the VIP.

12.6 VIP security in LWE/extremist affected areas

VIP visits and bandobast arrangements for public rallies should not be left to the political parties, owing to election expenditure booking considerations and citing code of conduct. Security cannot be compromised. To confront this situation following points should be taken into consideration:

(i). Threat assessment: Conduct thorough assessments to determine the level of threat that LWE/extremist groups pose to VIPs in the region.
(ii). Intelligence gathering: Gather reliable intelligence on the movement and activities of LWE/extremist groups to anticipate potential threats.

(iii). Strategic planning: Develop comprehensive security strategies that encompass travel, residence, and public appearances of VIPs.

(iv). Close protection: Assign well-trained personnel for close protection of VIPs during their visits to LWE affected areas.

(v). Coordination: Foster effective coordination between local police, central security agencies, and specialized VIP security units.

(vi). Route recce: Prioritize thorough recce of travel routes to identify potential ambush sites or threats.

(vii). Secure travel: Ensure secure modes of transportation, including armored vehicles and armed escorts, for VIPs traveling in LWE/extremist affected areas.

(viii). Communication systems: Set up robust communication systems for immediate response and coordination during emergencies.

(ix). Emergency evacuation plans: Develop well-defined plans for emergency evacuations in case of threats or attacks.

(x). Quick response teams: Maintain specialized Quick Response Teams (QRTs) that can swiftly respond to any security breaches.

(xi). Anti-IED measures: Train security personnel to detect and neutralize improvised explosive devices (IEDs) along potential routes.

(xii). Constant assessment: Continuously reassess security protocols and adjust strategies based on evolving LWE/extremist activities.

Briefing of each and every person concerned with the security arrangements for a VIP programme/ bandobast is a very crucial aspect related to any VIP security plan.
CHAPTER-13
SPECIAL PLAN FOR LWE, INSURGENCY/MILITANCY AFFECTED AREA

Conduct of peaceful, free, fair and incident free elections in LWE/Extremist affected areas has always been a major challenge in all the past elections. Extremist/terrorist groups have always opposed the democratic process of elections and have tried to use all possible means like indulging in violence, killings, threats to disrupt the democratic electoral process. They indulge in violent activities during the election: -

• By attacking security forces, their camps, pickets, posts, patrol parties.
• By targeting/attacking civilian authorities involved in electoral process, polling parties, polling officers & election staff.
• By attacking representatives of political parties, political killings, targeting candidates etc.
• By targeting government installations, buildings, booths, railway tracks, roads, bridges and culverts.
• By laying ambushes, IED traps.

These elements indulge in above mentioned activities to deter the government officials, security forces, polling officials from performing their duties and also to threaten the voters from exercising their democratic rights. Hence special plans are required for these LWE/extremists affected areas which are devised taking into account all the above-mentioned difficulties/challenges in order to ensure peaceful, free and fair election without the loss of man and material.

The chapter provides for general guidelines to be followed in LWE/Insurgency/Militancy affected areas. However, these guidelines do not in any way supersede or prevail over existing laws, provisions/SOPs, local conventions etc and are suggestive in nature.

13.1 Assessment of quantum and type of forces required and logistic requirements.

Large scale manpower and other logistics are required for conduct of free and fair elections. These assessments have to be done at least three months prior taking into account certain factors like

(i) The scale of extremists / terrorists / militants / LWE activities and severity of these outfits active in the area

(ii) Violence profile / previous incidents during election and as well as otherwise.
(iii) Nature of terrain – inaccessibility, hilly, mountainous, forested.
(iv) Availability of basic facility like – transportation, roads, hospitals, government buildings, communication networks like mobile connectivity, shadow areas.
(v) Intelligence inputs regarding the extremists/ militants/ LWE activities and their plans to disrupt the electoral processes.
(vi) Availability of in-situ forces.
(vii) Availability of logistics like MPV vehicles, BP vehicles, motorbikes, communication equipment like SAT phones, BDDS teams, and equipment related to IED detection and disposal, special gadgets like DSMDs, Drones, NVDs, area weapons etc.
(viii) Assessment of critical polling stations.
(ix) Based on the above facts a detailed assessment regarding the available resources and requirements related to manpower and logistics need to be prepared to tackle the special challenges posed by these areas.

13.2. Induction – de-induction Plan for the security forces as well as the polling parties and officials related to the electoral process.

It is prepared under two major heads:

13.2.1. Induction – de-induction plan for the security forces deployed in the district for the conduct of elections.

13.2.2. Induction – de-induction plan for the polling parties and officials accompanied with SFs on the polling day (P), (P-2), (P-1), (P+1) days as the case may be.

(i) Induction – de-induction plan for the security forces deployed in the district for the conduction of elections.

a) The CAPFs and other specialised forces are generally inducted into the district much prior to the actual polling day for conduct of area domination exercises, demining activities, ROP duties and to create a sense of confidence amongst the voters situated in remote infested villages and vulnerable pockets and they are de-induced from the district after the polling is over. These forces are generally deployed in extremists/ LWE affected areas which are hostile with tough terrain. Most of the incoming forces are generally not familiar with the local threats, terrain and the tactics of these areas hence a detailed induction and de-induction plan needs to be prepared for these incoming forces. As these forces arrive in the districts, they should be thoroughly briefed about the security scenario, threats, terrain, possible ambush points, IED threats, vulnerable routes, the extremists groups operating in their area of responsibility, their strengths, details on their weaponry, photographs, previous incidents etc. by senior formations of the district police as well as in-situ CAPFs.

b). Proper area domination exercises, demining exercises, ROP duties should be carried out for their safe induction to their place of deployment.

c). Local liasoning officers with knowledge of terrain, tactics of the extremists groups, tactics used by the SFs while operating in those areas must be attached with these troops. These teams should be provided with logistics supports like LMPVs/ MMPVs, BP vehicles, BDDS teams, etc. if not available with the team as per the requirement.

d). Equally important is the de-induction plan for these forces as once the polling part of the election is over, the district administration gets engaged into either next phase of election or counting related preparation and there is a possibility that the-induction process for these forces gets neglected. Majority of the incidents in the past generally have taken place during the withdrawal of the forces. Hence a de-induction plan as thorough as the induction plan is equally important for the forces.

(ii) Induction – de-induction plan for the polling parties and officials accompanied with SFs on the polling day (P), (P-2), (P-1), (P+1) days as the case may be.

Induction and de-induction plan for polling parties accompanying SFs like Sector Magistrates, Zonal Magistrates and Polling Staffs on the polling day (P) as well as on P-2, P-1 or P+1 days (as the situation demands) is very crucial for ensuring safety and security of the polling staffs officials and the forces accompanying them and also to instil a sense of confidence amongst the civilians, polling officials & staffs who are mainly responsible for conduction of polls in these hostile extremists / LWE affected areas. All the measures mentioned above for the safe induction and de-induction for the SFs must also be ensured for the safe induction and de-induction of the polling parties.
(iii) Course of action in P- 2 & P-1 induction

a) Due to inaccessibility & precautions required related to the movement, movement on P-2, P-1, P+1 days is also adopted in these hostile areas.

b) Ensuring adequate food and lodging arrangements.

c) Conducting advanced recce and intelligence gathering.

d) Setting up communication networks and establishing coordination with local authorities.

e) Area domination by special troops and security measures.

f) Strengthening of security arrangements like setting up morchas, trenches etc.

g) Planning for alternate induction and de-induction routes

h) Ensuring safety of EVMs & VVPATs and polling personnel.

Course of action in P+1 & P de-induction

i) Continuously assessing the security situation during and after the elections to identify any potential threats.

j) Begin the de-induction process gradually, prioritising the polling personnel & EVM safety.

k) Prioritising the withdrawal from sensitive or volatile areas.

l) While withdrawing, ensuring that a certain level of security presence is retained in critical areas to prevent disruption of smooth movement of polling parties.

m) Maintaining continuous communication with local police stations and senior authorities & staying updated on any emerging security threat perception.

n) Ensuring comprehensive Road Opening Plans (ROP) to secure exit routes and prevent ambushes or attacks during withdrawal.

o) Monitoring sensitive areas to identify any potential last-minute disruptions or threats that might arise during the de-induction process.

p) Planning & preparations for an intermediate strong room (if needed).

q) In highly extremism / LWE affected areas where it is not possible / feasible to de-induct the polling parties with poll EVMs back to the strong rooms on the polling day itself due to the grave security threats and possibility of attack, ambush or loss of men and material or due to inaccessible, difficult terrain preventing de-induction due to very long distances to be travelled back to strong room, in such circumstances planning and preparation for intermediate strong rooms are required to be done.

r) The DEO and SPs need to pre-assess any such requirement of intermediate strong room in their jurisdiction based on terrain and the security threat assessment and if unavoidable then with the prior permission of the ECI, intermediate strong room locations need to be selected. While selecting such locations, maintaining sanctity of the strong room and security should be the prime factor to be taken into consideration. Preferably a pucca government building with sufficient rooms should be selected which are secured from all sides and with boundary wall preferably amongst the cluster locations already secured by the CAPFs.

s) Preparation of route map

t) Detailed route map (both written/ descriptive as well as pictorial) needs to be prepared for all the incoming forces as an integral part of the transportation plan. It should cover all details right from the first point of disembarkation/ deboarding from the railway station/ airports etc. to the district where the forces are deployed. Within the district of deployment, it should cover all details regarding routes to their places of stay, to the dispatch centers, clusters, booths & to the strong room.

u) It should cover details regarding distances between various places, nature and quality of roads (e.g. metalled, kutchcha, village roads etc), bridges, culverts, diversions, blind/black spots, accident prone areas, traffic congestion prone areas, bottlenecks etc. It should also contain details regarding available petrol pumps, hospitals, police stations, pickets/ outposts/ camps, government buildings enroute.

v) In extremist/ LWE affected areas, it should include details on ambush prone sites, IED prone areas & details on any previous incident etc.

w) It should also contain important contact numbers of police stations, hospitals, emergency contact numbers which might be helpful for forces in case of emergency.
x) These route maps are to be provided to SFs and all polling parties involved in elections.

13.3. ROP plan

13.3.1. A comprehensive ROP plan needs to be prepared for

a) Induction and de-Induction on P-2, P-1, P (polling day) & P+1 days of the polling parties and security forces

b) For CAPFs, State Armed Forces and other specialized forces deployed in the districts for the entire election process during their induction and de-induction.

13.3.2. The Superintendent of Police needs to earmark separate forces for example in-situ CAPFs, district forces, QATs, etc. for this purpose. The forces should be separately earmarked for this exercise.

13.4. Heli-dropping(for clusters/polling stations) Plan:

Many a times due to highly inaccessible terrain, lack of road connectivity, extreme security threat issues, polling parties are directly heli-dropped at certain clusters/booths which are already dominated by SFs to minimise the threat posed by terrain/possible ambushes/IED threats etc. For this, a detailed heli-dropping plan should be prepared well in advance and prior approval needs to be taken from ECI with justification. Once the list of such booths/clusters where heli-dropping of the polling parties required is finalised, the heli-dropping plan should be prepared in the following manner.

(i). Assessment of helicopter requirements:

a) Evaluate the necessity of specific helicopter makes and types well in advance, considering actual on-field needs and secure helipad availability.

b) Present the proposal to the CEO’s office at least a month prior to the polling day.

(ii). Trial landings and helipad modifications:

a) Carry out trial landings well in advance before polling day, so that any modifications/corrections, if needed, may be done with respect to the helipads.

(iii). Effective allocation of resources:

a) Requisitions for sorties, transporting EVMs and troops, must be submitted to the office of State Police Nodal Officer, a minimum of 10 days prior to the polling day.
(iv). Adherence to Standard Operating Procedures (SOP):

a) DEOs and SPs have the sole responsibility of ensuring strict compliance of the Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) - for the heli-dropping plan.

b) The DEO and the SP also need to work out an alternative plan in case the heli-dropping is cancelled or failed due to certain emergencies like weather conditions, mechanical failures or threat assessment.

In this alternative plan, they will need to work out the ways and means by which the polling parties will be sent to the concerned booths/clusters.

The alternative plan may include:

- Securing the possible alternative routes to the concerned locations
- Arranging secure convoys for personnel and material with enhanced/ reinforced security along the routes with proper road opening parties.
- Possibility of using alternate secure modes of transport like LMPVs, BP vehicles, bikes, etc.
- Positioning strategically placed QRTs to provide support is also useful.
- Positioning of emergency response vehicles, ambulances etc. to address Emergency situations are also crucial.
- Another important aspect of the heli-dropping plan is the security plan for helipads and the funnel area. Dedicated SF units and nodal officers for securing the helipads and The funnel area is very crucial.

(v). Other important aspects for heli-dropping are: -

a) Exact GPS coordinates need to be ascertained and communicated to all the concerned.

b) Dedicated forces need to be tagged with nodal officers and their contact details need to be shared to all concerned officers.

c) Necessary logistics and adm. arrangements at the site of helipads needs to be assessed and kept in readiness for example smoke candles, fire tenders (if possible)
d) Wireless connectivity with the ground troops which secure the helipad is essential to communicate with pilots.

13.5. Contingency helipad planning

The DEOs and SPs need to identify possible helipad locations for evacuation in case of emergencies, attacks, accidents, etc for emergency evacuations. Dedicated nodal officers and forces should be earmarked for contingency helipads so that in case of emergency they can be activated.

13.6. Evacuation plan

A detailed evacuation plan needs to be prepared keeping in mind two kinds of exigencies: -

(i). Operational exigency

(ii). Medical exigency

(i). Operational exigency

The evacuation plan for the operational exigency should include: -

a) Contingency helipad plan for evacuation

b) QRTs / strategic reinforcement teams to reinforce the parties which need evacuation and support them for safe evacuation.

c) Positioning of specialised operation teams like CoBRA, SOG, Jharkhand Jaguar, C-60, Greyhounds, etc which can support reinforcement and evacuate the parties.

d) Road Opening Parties for evacuation needs to be worked out.

e) Transportation facilities like BP vehicles, MP vehicles, ambulances, bikes, etc to be placed at strategic locations in case evacuation is required.

f) Identification of alternative routes is also crucial.

(ii). Medical exigency

In case of medical exigency, for example evacuation of someone who is critically ill or whose life is in danger, following aspects need to be focused on: -

a) Availability of ambulances

b) Placing ambulances with life support system at strategic locations

c) Placing of bike ambulances for inaccessible/difficult terrain

d) Tagging of the PHCs located in the area and engaging the doctors, paramedics, ANMs available locally is crucial in saving the precious life of the personnel involved in the election process.
A comprehensive area wise list needs to be prepared indicating the PHCs, paramedics, doctors available with their contact details, who can help in emergency situations.

13.7. Strategic – reserves/QRTs:

(i) Reserves/QRTs locations for their placement: Identify strategic reserve locations to position Quick Reaction Teams (QRTs) for swift response in case of emergencies.

(ii) Nodal Officer to be assigned: Assign experienced officers to oversee the deployment of QRTs and strategic reserves, ensuring effective coordination and decision-making.

(iii) Areas of Responsibility (AORs) to be defined: Define clear Areas of Responsibility for each QRT and strategic reserve team to ensure comprehensive coverage of operational areas.

(iv) Operational emergency preparedness: Establish protocols and readiness plans to activate QRTs and strategic reserves swiftly in case of operational emergencies.

(v) Task for covering/dominating vulnerable areas during de-induction: Assign tasks to QRTs and reserves to cover and dominate vulnerable areas during the de-induction phase, ensuring security throughout the process.

13.8. Demining Plan:

The most potent weapon used by the extremists/militants/LWE against the SFs has always been the extensive use of IEDs. During previous elections as well as non-election times also, SFs have suffered massive casualties/losses due to the extensive use of IEDs by the extremists. With time the extremists have started using new advanced technologies such as claymore mines, anti-handling devices, pressure IEDs, etc. to inflict damage to the SFs. Hence in order to ensure safety and security of the SFs as well as polling staff/officials and minimum loss of man and material, extensive demining exercises are prerequisite to any deployment in the areas. For this purpose, a comprehensive training plan needs to be prepared and implemented and demining activities should be repeated continuously. The demining plan should entail the following:

(i) Expert demining teams: Deploy trained and experienced demining experts who are well-versed in handling various types of IEDs.

(ii) Protective gear: Ensure demining personnel wear appropriate protective gears to minimise injury risks.
(iii) Detection equipment: Equip demining teams with advanced detection equipment, such as metal detectors and ground-penetrating radar etc. to locate IEDs safely.

(iv) Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs): Implement strict SOPs for handling, neutralising, and disposing of IEDs, following established protocols to reduce risks.

(v) Controlled environment: Conduct demining operations in controlled and isolated environments to limit potential collateral damage and enhance safety.

(vi) Communication systems: Establish efficient communication channels amongst demining teams, security forces, and command centres to ensure rapid assistance if needed.

(vii) Evacuation plans: Develop well-defined evacuation plans for demining personnel in case of emergencies or accidental detonations.

(viii) Medical support: Have medical teams on standby to provide immediate assistance to demining personnel in case of injuries.

(ix) Risk assessment: Prioritise high-risk areas for demining based on thorough risk assessments to minimise exposure to potential threats.

(x) Continuous training: Provide professional training to demining teams to ensure they are well-prepared to handle various IED scenarios safely. Pre-election training of district police, state armed forces is very essential and they should be made aware of do’s and don’t in case an IED is found.

13.9. Communication Plan:

A detailed communication plan is very crucial in extremism/LWE affected areas. It acts as a lifeline in such hostile terrains and conditions. It provides real time inputs and is very crucial during operational/medical emergencies.

(i) Shadow areas: Identify and prioritise shadow areas for focused communication efforts, addressing limited connectivity challenges.

(ii) Wireless based: Create wireless communication networks using appropriate technologies to cover regions with poor network coverage. Establishment of secondary control rooms may be considered.

(iii) SAT phones: Equip key personnel with SAT phones to ensure continuous communication in areas lacking reliable networks.

(iv) Local persons: Collaborate with locals who understand the terrain to facilitate effective information relay and messaging.
Preparation of communication plan during election process is dealt separately in detail in chapter 11 of this book.

13.10. Training:

(i) Careful consideration must be given while formulating the training syllabus, encompassing all the important aspects that are immediately relevant for election-related purposes.

(ii) Before being deployed, all incoming forces should undergo pre-induction training. This training aims to acquaint them with polling booth routes, terrain, tactics required for forces, details on extremist groups, previous incidents, operational tactics, their strength, weaponry, photographs of extremists/LWE and essential operational guidelines, with a focal emphasis on counter-IED training.

(iii) Individual districts can formulate training programs based on their local conditions. Identification of proficient trainers and resource persons beforehand is crucial, and they should be assigned for training purposes well in advance.

(iv) Training sessions should comprise initial briefings at holding areas followed by practical exercises in the designated deployment zone. The focus should be on instilling precautionary measures, adherence to standard operating procedures, and attaining familiarity with the operational area.

(v) An optimal approach involves delivering training at company clusters, ensuring efficient utilisation of scarce training resources.

(vi) A booklet containing area-specific information, along with dos and don’ts, should be prepared in advance. These resources should be available to every incoming force member upon their arrival.

(vii) Alongside formal training, state authorities should facilitate consistent and effective briefings.

(viii) The acclimatisation of incoming forces should be facilitated by local troops, ensuring their familiarity with the area.

13.11. Booklet /Folder

A comprehensive booklet/ folder should be prepared and distributed to all stakeholders covering following points: -

(i) Do’s & Don’ts regarding movement in LWE/ extremist affected areas and IED prone areas.

(ii) Profile of the active extremists/naxals and their modus operandi and photographs.
(iii) Ambush prone areas/IED prone routes mapped in toposheets.
(iv) Previous incidents with analysis of shortcomings.
(v) MAPs (AOR) containing previous incidences, vulnerable routes, vulnerable points, clusters, booths.
(vi) Contact numbers /telephone directory of the key persons (district officials, local police stations, doctors, para-medics, local administrative officers concerned with elections, control room numbers etc.)
(vii) These booklets should be extensively used in briefing.

13.12. Adm. Arrangements: SP along with Reserve Inspector/Sergeant Major of district headquarter will oversee proper adm. arrangements including:

(i) Vehicles: Ensure an adequate fleet of vehicles for transportation of personnel, materials, and equipment across challenging terrains.

(ii) Fuel supply: Arrange sufficient fuel reserves to sustain vehicle movement and operational activities throughout the election period.

(iii) Defence materials: Adequate defence material for fortifying sensitive locations/cluster points/polling stations etc. against potential threats.

(iv) Electricity and generators: Set up generators and power sources to ensure consistent electricity supply for communication, lighting, and operational needs.

(v) Water supply: Secure a reliable water supply for drinking, sanitation, and other essential requirements for personnel and voters.

(vi) Sanitation facilities: Establish temporary toilets and bathrooms to meet the sanitation needs of personnel and voters at various locations.

(vii) Coordination with District Collectors (DCs): Maintain effective coordination with District Collectors to align administrative efforts, resource allocation, and security measures.

13.13. Joint Control Room (Composite Control Room):

A Composite control room should be set up consisting of all stakeholders - senior magistrates of district administration, representatives of DEO, representatives of CAPFs and state police for monitoring election processes and exchange of information. It should be functional 24*7 and equipped with all necessary communication devices (telephone connectivity, mobile connectivity, wireless communication etc.) of all units of CAPFs, state forces, medical, fire and other agencies connected with election processes. It should have a communication plan for booths, sectors, zones and others as ordered by the DEO office. It should also be seamlessly connected with 112.

Secondary control rooms should be set up in case of far-flung areas and it should be in regular contact with the composite control room at District.

13.14. VIP monitoring cell:

Establishment of VIP monitoring cell

A dedicated VIP Security Monitoring Cell needs to be made functional at the state as well as district level to coordinate with different security agencies, intelligence agencies, offices of CEOs, DEOs, superintendent of police, political parties, control rooms and others to ensure incident free full proof security of the VIPs.

The VIP monitoring cell at the state level should be headed by a sufficiently high rank officer nominated by the DGP of the state. This cell would be the single contact point for monitoring of VIP movements. This cell will be responsible for making available the security gradation of the VIPs, pooling of resources, assessment of security gadgets, coordination with CEOs office, different security agencies like CAPFs, SPG, NSG, VIP monitoring cells of other states, different intelligence agencies like SB, SIB & IB. The state VIP monitoring cell would be guiding and instructing the district level VIP monitoring cell to make a full proof arrangement to ensure security of the VIPs.

In the district, the VIP monitoring cell should be headed by at least a DySP rank officer with sufficient and well-trained manpower & resources.

The cell at the state level would be responsible for:

(i) Ensuring availability of security gadgets, security protocols and security categorisation lists and instructions to all those concerned with the VIP security.

(ii) This cell should evaluate the threat assessment of the VIPs depending upon security categorisation and the intelligence agency inputs.

(iii) Keeping track of the various VIP movements, gatherings, rallies etc. taking place in a day in various places and continuously coordinating with the district VIP monitoring cells, and to guide and take stock of the situation.
(iv) At the district level, the district monitoring cells would replicate the above tasks in their jurisdiction to have a full proof security plan at the time of VIP movement. The cell at the district level would be responsible for providing all essential security arrangements to the VIP as per the sanctioned norms and would be solely responsible for coordination for all security related aspects.

(v) VIP security in LWE/ extremist affected areas.

VIP visits and bandobast arrangements for public rallies should not be left to the political parties, owing to election expenditure booking considerations and citing code of conduct. Security cannot be compromised. To confront this situation following points should be taken into consideration:

a) Threat assessment: Conduct thorough assessments to determine the level of threat that LWE/ extremist groups pose to VIPs in the region.

b) Intelligence gathering: Gather reliable intelligence on the movement and activities of LWE/ extremist groups to anticipate potential threats.

c) Strategic planning: Develop comprehensive security strategies that encompass travel, residence, and public appearances of VIPs.

d) Close protection: Assign well-trained personnel for close protection of VIPs during their visits to LWE affected areas.

e) Coordination: Foster effective coordination between local police, central security agencies, and specialized VIP security units.

f) Route recce: Prioritize thorough recce of travel routes to identify potential ambush sites or threats.

g) Secure travel: Ensure secure modes of transportation, including armored vehicles and armed escorts, for VIPs traveling in LWE/ extremist affected areas.

h) Communication systems: Set up robust communication systems for immediate response and coordination during emergencies.

i) Emergency evacuation plans: Develop well-defined plans for emergency evacuations in case of threats or attacks.
HANDBOOK FOR POLICE OFFICERS

h) Quick response teams: Maintain specialized Quick Response Teams (QRTs) that can swiftly respond to any security breaches.

i) Anti-IED measures: Train security personnel to detect and neutralize improvised explosive devices (IEDs) along potential routes.

j) Constant assessment: Continuously reassess security protocols and adjust strategies based on evolving LWE/extremist activities.

13.15. Intelligence sharing mechanism:

Robust intelligence sharing mechanism with various stakeholders such as central intelligence agencies, state intelligence agencies, CAPFs, State forces, etc. is essential during elections. Timely sharing of qualitative intelligence is very important not just to prevent any losses but to launch an offensive against extremists / LWE groups. Suggestions for seamless intelligence sharing are as follows: -

(i) Secure communication channels: Use encrypted communication channels to transmit information securely.

(ii) End-to-end encryption: Apply end-to-end encryption to ensure that only intended recipients can access the information.

(iii) Access control: Strictly follow the SOPs for information sharing, allowing only authorized personnel to access specific reports.

(iv) Need-to-know principle: Share reports only on a need-to-know basis, preventing dissemination to unauthorized individuals.

(v) Centralized repository: Establish a centralized repository like composite control room, war room with controlled access by authorized users only.

(vi) Secure devices: Ensure that devices used to access intelligence reports are secure, have updated firmware, and are free from malware.

(vii) Training and awareness: Provide regular training to personnel about the importance of security, intelligence, recognizing phishing attempts, and adhering to proper procedures.

(viii) Physical security: Control physical access to facilities housing intelligence data through surveillance and biometric authentication.
13.16. Movement-Foot or vehicular naxal/ extremist affected areas.

Vehicular movement should be avoided as far as possible in naxal/ extremist affected areas which are IED and ambush prone and have a history of attack on SFs because of the following reasons:

(i) Lower Vulnerability to IED attacks: On-foot movement reduces the risk of falling victim to IED attacks, as troops travelling on foot can detect suspicious objects and navigate around them more effectively.

(ii) Enhanced manoeuvrability: Walking allows individuals to navigate challenging terrains, narrow paths, and dense vegetation with greater agility, minimising the risk of ambushes.

(iii) Reduced detection: Foot movements generate less noise and visual cues, making it harder for adversaries to detect and ambush pedestrians.

(iv) Flexibility in route selection: Walking allows for flexible route choices, enabling individuals to bypass risky areas and avoid known threat zones.

(v) Stealth and concealment: On-foot movement enables quieter and stealthier progress, reducing the chances of adversaries detecting and preparing for attacks.

(vi) Smaller footprint: A smaller group of individuals on foot is less conspicuous and attracts less attention than a convoy of vehicles.

(vii) Reduced collateral damage: In the event of an ambush or attack, on-foot movement minimises the potential for collateral damage to surrounding civilians or infrastructure.

(viii) Logistical simplicity: Foot movements require fewer logistical considerations, allowing for more adaptive and agile travel through challenging environment.
CHAPTER-14

ROLE OF SOCIAL MEDIA IN ELECTION AND HOW TO COMBAT DISINFORMATION

14.1. Social Media

Information and communication technology has changed rapidly over the past 20 years, with a key development being the emergence of social media. Social media is an internet-based form of communication. Social media platforms allow users to have conversations, share information and create web content.

14.2. Social Media in Election

14.2.1 A number of cases of Fake News on election matters are circulated on different platforms including social media. During Elections, the frequency of such fake news increases immensely. Such fake news items have the potential to promote mistrust amongst various shareholders in the electoral process, disturb the level playing field, polarise public opinion and in some cases even result in law-and-order issues.

14.2.2 Social media networks are being used to distribute false information and erode public trust in the media, government, and academia. It is being done to sway public opinion in their favour.

14.3. Disinformation

14.3.1 Unverified or unclarified messages are very common on social media. Common names include “misinformation,” “disinformation,” “fake news,” and “rumour”. Among them, misinformation, disinformation, and fake news all emphasise the false nature of information and describe the object of information that has been falsified.

14.3.2 Misinformation often misleads the public to make decisions, causes them to form corresponding actions, and generates emotional and psychological fluctuations.

14.4. Categories of Disinformation Clickbait

This uses exaggerated, questionable, or misleading headlines, images or social media descriptions to generate web traffic. These stories are deliberately fabricated to attract readers.

(i) Propaganda

This spreads information, rumours, or ideas to harm an institution, country, group of people or individual -- typically for political gain.
(ii) Imposter content
This impersonates general news sites to contain made-up stories to deceive readers.

(iii) Biased/slanted news
This attracts readers to confirm their own biases and beliefs.

(iv) Misleading headlines
These stories may not be completely false but are distorted with misleading headlines and small snippets displayed in newsfeeds.

14.5. How disinformation spreads on social media

Continuous sharing
It’s easy to share and “like” content on social media. The number of people that see this content increases each time a user shares it with their social network.

(i) Recommendation engines
Social media platforms and search engines also provide readers with personalised recommendations based on past preferences and search history. This further contributes to who sees fake news.

(ii) Engagement metrics
Social media feeds prioritise content using engagement metrics, including how often readers share or like stories. However, accuracy is not a factor.

(iii) Hackers
These people can plant stories into real media news outlets, appearing as though they are from reliable sources.

(iv) Trolls
Fake news can also appear in the comments of reputable articles. Trolls deliberately post to upset other readers.

14.6. Identifying disinformation on social media

The first step of fighting the spread of disinformation on social media is to identify fake news. The following are the ways to recognize fake news and identify disinformation.

(i) Check other reliable sources
Search other reputable news sites and outlets to see if they are reporting on this story. Check for credible sources cited within the story. Credible, professional news agencies have strict editorial guidelines for fact-checking an article.
(ii) Check the source of the information

If the story is from an unknown source, do some research. Examine the web address of the page and look for strange domains other than “.com” such as “.inфонет” or “.оffer.” Check for any spelling errors of the company name in the URL address.

Consider the reputation of the source and their expertise on the matter. Bad actors may create webpages to mimic professional sites to spread fake news. When in doubt, go to the homepage of the organisation and check for the same information.

(iii) Look at the author

Perform a search on the author. Check for credibility, how many followers they have and how long the account has been active.

Scan other posts to determine if they have bot behaviours, such as posting at all times of the day and from various parts of the world. Check for qualities such as a username with numbers and suspicious links in the author’s bio. If the content is retweeted from other accounts and has highly polarised political content, it is likely a fake bot account.

(iv) Search the profile photo

In addition to looking at the author’s information and credibility, check their profile picture. Complete a reverse image search of profile photo on Google Reverse Image Search. Make sure the image is not a stock image or a celebrity. If the image doesn’t appear to be original, then the article is likely not reliable because it is anonymous.

(v) Reading beyond the headline

Think about if the story sounds unrealistic or too good to be true. A credible story has plenty of facts conveyed with expert quotes, official statistics and survey data. It can also have eyewitness accounts.

If there are not detailed or consistent facts beyond the headline, question the information. Look for evidence to support that the event really happened. Make sure facts are not solely used to back up a certain viewpoint.

(vi) Developing a critical mindset

Don’t let personal beliefs cloud judgement. Biases can influence how someone responds to an article. Social media platforms suggest stories that match a person’s interests, opinions and browsing habits.

Don’t let emotions influence views on the story. Look at a story critically and rationally. If the story is trying to persuade the reader or send readers to another site, it is probably fake news.
(vii) Determine if it is a joke

Satirical websites make the story a parody or a joke. Check the website to see if they consistently post funny stories and if they are known for satire.

(viii) Use a fact-checking site

For election related information, check for ECI/CEO website or ECI official social media platforms for authentic and credible information. Fact-checking sites can also help determine if the news is credible or fake. These sites use independent fact checkers to review and research the accuracy of the information by checking reputable media sources. They are often part of larger news outlets that identify incorrect facts and statements.

(ix) Check image authenticity

Modern editing software makes it easy to create fake images that look real. Look for shadows or jagged edges in the photo. Google Reverse Image Search is another way to check the image to see where it originated and if it’s altered.

14.7. Reporting Disinformation

Once disinformation has been identified, they must be taken down to prevent further chaos. Most of the Social Media Platforms have mechanisms to report disinformation/news that incite violence/spam through their legal portals. Special provisions exist for law enforcement agencies to report violations.

For CEOs/DEOs, the Commission has prepared an SOP for quick response management for identification and quick response in cases of Fake News and misleading/unverified media stories. (No.491/ SM/2023/5/ Communication dated 4th August, 2023)

14.8. Initiating Legal action against the source

(i) In India, there is no explicit legislation dealing with false information. The right to freedom of speech and expression, guaranteed by Article 19(1)(a) of the Indian Constitution, is the fundamental law that encourages the free publication or broadcasting of news. However, it is important to recall that the freedom granted by Article 19(1)(a) is not absolute and is subject to reasonable limitations imposed by Article 19(2).

(ii) Section 66 D of the IT Act 2008 regulates offences related to electronic communication. This includes punishing individuals who send offensive messages through communication services or social media platforms. This act can be used to penalise those who spread fake news through electronic communication.
(iii) Sections 153, 153A, 295, and 295A of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), can also be used to combat fake news.

(iv) In the case of misleading news, an alternative legal option is to file a defamation complaint.

(v) If fake news is defamatory, the concerned person can initiate a civil or criminal defamation case.

The Election Commission does not regulate the media. It has, however, the responsibility to enforce the provisions of law or Court directions, which might have linkages with media or certain aspects of media functioning. These laws are mentioned below:

(i) Section 126 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951:

As per Section 126(1)(b) of the R.P. Act, 1951, no person shall display to the public any election matter by means of cinematograph, television or other similar apparatus in any polling area during the period of forty-eight hours ending with the hour fixed for the conclusion of the poll for any election in the polling area.

(ii) Section 126A of the Representation of the People Act, 1951:

It prohibits conduct of exit poll and dissemination of their results during the period mentioned therein, i.e., the hour fixed for commencement of polls in the first phase and half hour after the time fixed for close of poll for the last phase in all the States and Union Territories.

(iii) Section 127A of the Representation of the People Act, 1951:

The printing and publication of election pamphlets, posters, etc. is governed by its provisions, which make it mandatory to bear on its face the names and addresses of the printer and the publisher.

(iv) Section 171H of the Indian Penal Code:

It prohibits incurring expenditure on, interalia, advertisement without the authority of the contesting candidate.

Clarification regarding social networking sites and E-Papers Regarding.

“Voluntary Code of Ethics” by Social Media Platforms to be observed in the General Election to the Haryana & Maharashtra Legislative Assemblies and all future elections.

Ensuring the comprehensive training of police personnel for their role in electoral processes is an essential aspect of election planning and management. Proper training equips them to navigate the complexities of elections, enabling fair conduct, preventing intimidation or electoral malpractice, and upholding the core tenets of credible elections. It is through this training that police can effectively safeguard the electoral process, protect citizens’ electoral rights, and foster a sense of trust and confidence in the entire process.

15.1 Training Plan:

(i) DEO:

DEO prepares a training calendar at least 6 months (reference Dos & Don’ts for DEO 2023) before the election. (reference DO & DONTs for DEO 2023). While preparing these training calendars SP should take an active part.

(ii) Superintendent of Police:

At least 6 months prior to the announcement of the election, SP office should start the process of categorising police officers according to their roles during the election process. A role-based database should be created at the SP office.

For conducting training of police officers efforts should be made to rely on developed and standardised training modules provided by the CEO office or ECI.

Similarly master trainers should be identified from within police ranks to facilitate the training of the police personnel.

- Maintenance of law and order,
- Execution of non-bailable warrants,
- Seizure of illegal arms,
- Surrender of licensed weapons,
- Enforcement of excise law,
- Action against bootleggers,
- Restriction on use of vehicles,
- Instruction regarding prior permission for campaign vehicles,
- Ban on use of any vehicle for transporting voters on the day of poll etc.
Police officers are assigned various roles and responsibilities during the conduct of elections hence it is important that training is also conducted as per their assigned roles and responsibilities.

A list of training material required along with a detailed lesson plan should be prepared for organising these trainings.

SP should be responsible for ensure training to all the Police Staff is completed by the given timelines

15.2 Nature of Training:

(i) Level 1 -
   a) Topics: a recommended list of topics that may be covered are:
      ● Overview of the Election process
      ● Model Code of Conduct
      ● Role and Responsibilities of Police
      ● Electoral offences
      ● Preventive Measure
   b) Trainers: District Level master trainers from the police dept.

LEGAL PROVISIONS UNDER THE REPRESENTATION OF PEOPLES ACT, 1951

The Representation of the People Act, 1951 is an act of Parliament of India to provide for the conduct of election of the Houses of Parliament and to the House or Houses of the Legislature of each State, the qualifications and disqualifications for membership of those Houses, the corrupt practices and other offenses at or in connection with such elections and the decision of doubts and disputes arising out of or in connection with such elections.

The police play a vital role in smooth conduct of elections and it has to check that the provisions of the Representation of the People’s Act, 1951 are not violated.

The Police can, on intimation to the polling authorities, initiate action against offenders under section 131, 132 of the Representation of the People’s Act, 1951.

The Police should ensure that no candidates set up their agents near the polling station for distributing poll slips to any voter within a radius of 200 meters of the polling station.

The Election Commission has emphasized the need for enforcing the following measures to prevent booth capturing:

(i). If the Police detects any breach regarding the entry within a radius of 200 meters and if the agent concerned does not have written instructions, Police will take action under section 130 of the People’s Representation Act, 1951.

(ii). Sensitive areas should be identified based on the past history, information regarding abnormal law and order condition, nature of contest, political rivalry, number of scheduled caste electorates and number of history sheeters, constituency wise to tackle any problem.

(iii). In case of any violation or commission of any offence under the provisions of the Representations of the People’s Act, Police shall take appropriate action immediately.

Section 126 of the RP Act, 1951, inter-alia, prohibits election campaign activities through public meetings, processions, etc, and displaying of election matter by means of television and similar apparatus. The purpose sought to be served by this prohibition is to provide a period of tranquil (silence period) for the electors before the voting day.

In a multi-phased election, the silence period of last 48 hours may be on in certain constituencies while campaign is ongoing in other constituencies. In such event, there should not be any direct or indirect reference amounting to soliciting support for parties or candidates in the constituencies observing the silence period. During the silence period, star campaigners and other Political Leaders should refrain from addressing the media by way of press conferences and giving interviews on election matters. 20.4 MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT

The Model Code of Conduct for Political Parties and Candidates is a set of guidelines developed with the consensus of political parties who have agreed to abide by the principles embodied in the said code and also binds them to respect and observe it in its letter and spirit. This is consistent with Article 324 of the Constitution, which empowers the Election Commission to oversee elections to the Parliament and state legislatures.

20.4.1 The Model Code of Conduct is in effect as of the date the Election Commission announces the election schedule and will remain in effect until the election process is completed.

20.4.2 The MCC is not legally enforceable.
20.4.3 The Indian Penal Code of 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1973, and the Representation of the People Act of 1951 all have provisions that can be used to enforce various MCC clauses.

VIOLATION OF THE MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT

20.4.4 In the event of a violation of the Code, the ECI can take a variety of actions, including imposing a fine, filing an FIR that leads to imprisonment, or even cancelling the polls in that constituency.
